Before changing the SIM PIN, you need to enable it.

UPDATING YOUR DEVICE

Your phone can download and install Software updates.

Settings > About Phone > Software updates

The software update service checks an online server to see if any updates are available for your phone. If an update is available you can choose to download and install the update.

Downloading via Wi-Fi is highly recommended. Data usage charges will apply if downloading via mobile networks. International roaming data charges will apply for customers downloading the upgrade on a mobile network whilst travelling outside of Australia.

A firmware update will require a restart of your device.

EXTERNAL ANTENNA PORT

Your phone provides an external RF antenna port for connecting to suitable patch leads and antennas. Only used approved ZTE patch leads as other generic leads can damage your device. The RF port can be damaged by rough use, excessive force, bending or twisting on the connector so always take care to insert and remove the connector correctly and gently.

The phone's internal antenna connects to the external RF port. Damage to the RF port can result in the internal antenna being disconnected which will render your device unusable. Physical damage to the external RF port is not covered under warranty.

HEADPHONE AND USB CHARGING PORT

The headphone and the USB charging port are both internally waterproof. If the device is dropped in water it is possible for water to remain in the socket which may affect your device. In the event of device submersion, blow or tap any liquid out of the ports and leave in a warm place to dry for a few hours.

SAFETY

GENERAL STATEMENT ON RF ENERGY

The phone is a low-power radio transmitter and receiver. When switched on it intermittently transmits radio frequency (RF) energy (radio waves). The transmit power level is optimised for best performance and automatically reduces when there is good quality reception. Maximum power is only used at the edge of network coverage so under most circumstances the power output is very low. Under poor network conditions the phone transmits at a higher power, may get hot and have a shorter battery life.

SPECIFIC ABSORPTION RATE (SAR)

The phone is designed not to exceed the limits for exposure to radio waves recommended by the ICNIRP. The limits include safety margins designed to assure the protection of all persons, regardless of age and health.

The guidelines measure the Specific Absorption Rate, or SAR. The SAR limit for mobile devices is 2W/Kg. This device has been tested and approved to be lower than the maximum allowed SAR value. The worst case SAR value for this device is published on ztemobiles.com.au
